GAP TRAINING

NSPI will recommend gap training in any subject you cannot provide appropriate evidence for. If you decide to do the gap training, the trainee guide and written assessment will be mailed out for you to complete. Once you have read the trainee guide and feel that you have an understanding of the information, do the written assessment and send it back to NSPI for review. Gap training incurs an additional cost of $200.00 per unit/subject.
